CONVICTIONS AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

With the exception of offences which are "spent" under the terms of the "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974", enter the exact details of any criminal or court martial convictions. Please enter details of any outstanding Summons or Prosecution. before answering the question you should note that if you have failed to give relevant particulars or should you give false particulars you will not be considered for employment or, if already engaged, you will be liable to instant dismissal. If you have no convictions or outstanding summonses write "none". Seaford and District has a contractual requirement with some local authorities to operate school services on their behalf which are exempt from the "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974" (ROA). As a result, a Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) check will be undertaken in these locations prior to the commencement of employment. If short listed, applicants may therefore be asked to complete a disclosure form. Full guidance notes will be issued. Any information disclosed will be kept in strictest confidence and will only be used when considering your suitability for the post that you have applied for. The CRB have produced a Code of Practice, which Seaford and District adheres to. Should you wish to view the Code it is available on the CRB website, or alternatively, a copy can be made available to you upon request. A criminal record will not necessarily prevent you obtaining the position.

DECLARATION AND VALIDITY

I declare that the information provided on this application form is, to my knowledge true and accurate. I understand that if it is subsequently discovered that any statement is false or misleading, I may be discharged from employment. With the exception of offences, which are "spent" under the terms of the "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974", I have included details of criminal or court martial convictions including driving convictions. I understand that it may be necessary, at some locations, to undergo a Criminal Records Bureau check, which will ask exempted questions under the "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974" and will show offences that are "spent" under the act. I agree to a pre-employment medical examination, eyesight and drugs testing in line with procedure, and acknowledge that if I fail either of these tests my employment will be terminated. I am legally entitled to take paid employment in the United Kingdom.

I consent to seeking references from previous employers.
